Introduction

This is a supplement to F. K. Upham's Upham Genealogy. The Descendants of John Upham, of Massachusetts. Who Came from England in 1635, and lived in Weymouth and Malden. Embracing over five hundred heads of families, extending into the tenth generation, published in 1892.

Questionnaires were sent to members of the Upham Family Society, Inc. in 1970 and 1990 asking for additional information not included in the original volume. Sketches compiled from the questionnaires were sent to the respondents for review. In some cases, conflicting information may have been received from two or more members of a family and both sets of information are included (e.g., 2/12 June 1850 or Detroit/Ann Arbor).

With a few exceptions, no additional research has been done on the Upham family for this supplement. Certainly, there are many Upham lines that could be traced further, but this volume is restricted to those lines submitted by members of the Association and others who have completed questionnaires.

Following the format of the original volume, this supplement continues only the male Upham lines from generation to generation. Female lines are included under the male head of family. However, to include as much of the information available as possible, this supplement extends the female lines through four generations. Therefore, the children, grandchildren, and great-grandchildren of Upham daughters are included when such information was submitted.

The outline system used for the children is as follows:

i. Upham children

1. Grandchildren: (a) great-grandchildren

(i. great-great-grandchildren).

Superscripts denote generations from John Upham the immigrant (e.g., John,[3] Phineas,[2] John[1] refers to John of the third generation, son of Phineas of the second generation, son of John of the first generation).

The format and numbering system used is that of the New England Historical and Genealogical Register. The birth order of children is designated by Roman numerals (e.g., i., ii.). Male Uphams who are carried forward to the next generation are also given an Arabic number (e.g., 504). Individuals who were in the original volume are indicated within brackets with their sketch number and the page number from the original volume from which the sketch is continued. New numbers in this volume begin with 504, continuing from the original. The number of the Upham parent is also given to help the reader locate the parent's sketch, whether in this or in the original volume. For example:

WILLIAM[4] UPHAM (#3 Phineas,[3-2] John[1])

505. WILLIAM[7] UPHAM (#504 William,[6-5-4] Phineas,[3-2] John[1])

In the first example, the sketch for William[4] Upham (son of Phineas Upham, No. 3) continues from sketch No. 12 on page 82 of the original volume. In the second example, the sketch for William[7] Upham (No. 505) continues from the sketch of his father, William[6] Upham No. 504, in the supplement.

The amount of information in each sketch depends upon the detail given by the respondents. In some cases, information may be extensive on some children, but minimal on others. While care has been taken to include accurate information, it is inevitable that errors will have been made. The Upham Family Society, Inc., welcomes additional material from Upham descendants for future supplements.

Finally, my sincere appreciation to all of the Upham family for their enthusiastic participation in this project. Particular thanks to Mary Kudarauskas for her patience and support.

WILLIAM[4] UPHAM (#3 Phineas,[3-2] John[1]), born at Malden, Massachusetts, 30 October 1697 (NEHGR, 23[1869]:34); died at Weston, Massachusetts, 19 August 1776 aged 79 of small pox (VR 579).

He married first at Cambridge, Massachusetts, 21 June 1722 (VR 339; History Cambridge, 527), NAOMI DANA, daughter of Daniel and Naomi (---) Dana, died at Weston, 11 March 1725[/6] (VR, 18), probably from complications of childbirth.

He married second, at Weston, 9 November 1727, THANKFUL DANA, daughter of Joseph and Mary (---) Dana, died at Weston, 23 May 1740, in her 45th year from "throat disease" (VR, 337). On 29 July 1727/8 (sic) William Upham, husbandman, who married Thankful "which is said daughter and co-heir of Joseph Dana, late of Concord" quitclaimed for £31 his right to land in Concord (Middlesex Co. LR, 28:243).

He married third, at Newton, 3 March 1740/1 (VR, 394), ELIZABETH ROBINSON, daughter of William and Elizabeth (---) Robinson, born at Newton, 11 September 1707 (VR, 167); died at Weston, 18 September 1777 (VR, 312).

When William Upham married Naomi Dana in Cambridge, he was said to be "of Pombret" (Connecticut). After a short interval in Malden, he and Naomi were in Weston by April 1723.

William sold his father's land in Malden calling himself a son of Phinehas Upham (Middlesex Co., Mass., Land Records, 42:280). On 3 April 1723 (recorded 23 March 1752) William Upham of Weston, husbandman, sold for £24 paid by Jonathan Barrett of Malden, land lying in Malden bounded southwest by Noah Upham. Naomi Upham relinquished her dower; witnesses were Joshua Sawyer, Noah Upham, Tamzin Upham and Ezekiel Upham (Midd. Co. LR, 35:260).

Children of William and Naomi (Dana) UPHAM:

[36.] i. WILLIAM,[5] b. at Malden (rec. Weston), 11 March 1722/3.

ii. DANIEL, b. at Weston, 7 Feb. 1725/6; d. at Weston, 13 March 1725/6 (VR, 18).

AMOS[5] UPHAM (#8 Phineas,[4-3-2] John[1]), born at Malden, Massachusetts, 29 September 1718 (VR 90); died at Malden, 23 January 1786 (VR 385).

He married at Malden, 10 March 1740/1 (VR 310), LOIS GREEN, of Reading, died 20 September 1811, age 90.

Children of Amos and Lois (Green) UPHAM (for others, see original volume):

vi. MARTHA,[6] d. 5 Feb. 1832; m. int. at Malden, 11 April 1781 (VR, 186), SAMUEL TUFTS, son of Joseph and Hannah (Cutter) Tufts, b. 1759; d. at Westford, 4 Jan. 1819. Child (TUFTS):

1. SARAH J[EAN?],[7] b. 1814; d. 1894; m. LORENZO BERNARD NEWHALL, son of Bernard and Mary Paul (Tufts) Newhall, b. 1811; d. 1870. Child (Newhall): Sarah Tufts.

WILLIAM[5] UPHAM (#12 William,[4] Phineas,[3-2] John[1]), born at Malden (but recorded in Weston), 11 March 172[2/]3 (Weston VR, 18); died at Newton, 3 December 1798 [recorded in Weston as "a pauper" (VR, 579)].

He was "of Weston" when he married first at Sudbury, 10 April 1745 (Sudbury VR, 278; Weston VR, 57, gives dates as 11 March 1744), ELIZABETH GREGORY daughter of John and Frances (Allen) MacGregor or Gregory, born at Weston, 22 March 1726/7 (VR, 20 as "Elizabeth Magriggo"); died at Weston, 31 January 1772 age 46 (VR, 46).

He married second at Newton, intention recorded 23 January 1744 (VR, 394), LYDIA JACKSON, daughter of Joseph and Patience (---) Jackson, born at Newton, 20 September 1718; died in Weston as "Widow Upham" on 30 January 1800, aged 80 (sic), "a pauper" (VR, 579).

On 5 March 1774, prior to William's marriage to Lydia Jackson, an agreement was made between William[4] Upham (the father) and Lydia Jackson in which William agreed to provide his son, William[5] Upham, Junr. (in Case his proposed marriage with Lydia Jackson should take Effect) an Estate to improve during his natural life, at least to the value of £106 16s. 8d. and in case the said Lydia survive the said William Upham Junr that she shall have the improvement of an Estate at least to the value of £53 3s. 8d. during her natural life. On 26 September 1776, William Upham (Jr.) of Newton, yeoman, sold his right to that inheritance to Josiah Starr of Newton, physician, with the consent of his wife Lydia (Middlesex Co. LR, 91:427-28). This very unusual agreement was apparently made because Lydia, a 56-year-old spinster wanted her husband to have a guarantee of property at least for her lifetime. Why she gave up the property so soon is unknown, but the fact that both she and William died as paupers indicates her instincts were correct.

The 1790 census shows William Upham residing in Newton with one female, undoubtedly his wife (p. 150).

Children of William and Elizabeth (Gregory) UPHAM, first child recorded in Weston (VR, 59), others in Newton (VR, 196):

i. MARY,[6] b. 10 Jan. 1745[/6]; m. at Neton, 10 Apr. 1765, THOMAS SPRING.

504. ii. WILLIAM, b. 7 Aug. 1747.

iii. ELIZABETH, b. 31 March 1750; d. at Newton, 25 March 1772, ae. 20y (sic) (VR, 509; Weston VR, 579, gives her age correctly as 22).

iv. NAOMI, b. 18 Feb. 1752; d. at Newton, 17 April 1769 (VR, 509).

v. FRANCES (Fanny), b. 15 Sept. 1754; m. at Newton, 3 Feb. 1773, DANIEL JACKSON (VR, 393).

vi. DANIEL, b. 25 July 1757.

vii. BEULAH, b. 27 July 1759.

viii. BENJAMIN, b. 18 Feb. 1762; d. at Newton, 1 Aug. 1771 (VR, 509).

ix. BENJAMIN [sic, probably EPHRAIM], b. 20 Sept. 1764, rec. as Benjamin; d. at Newton, 2 Sept. 1765 as "Ephraim son of William and Elizabeth" (VR, 504).

WILLIAM[5] UPHAM (#17 Ezekiel,[4] John,[3] Phineas,[2] John[1]), born probably at Sturbridge, 29 October 1770; died at Weathersfield, Vermont, 20 December 1820.

He married at Springfield, Vermont, 25 October 1770, ELIZABETH WOOD, died 8 May 1804 age 54.

See original volume for biographical material.

The will of William Upham of Unity, Cheshire County, New Hampshire was made at Weathersfield 27 April 1810 and witnessed by Reuben Lockwood, Jonathan Whipple and Phineas L. Whipple. He divided his property among his sons Barach, Caleb and Joshua. The will was proved at the Windsor District Probate Court, North Springfield, Vermont, 6 January 1813. The inventory was taken 20 January 1813 and totalled $11,795 including 140 acres of land bequeathed to Barach Upham ($2,100), 80 acres to Caleb Upham ($1,200), 139 acres to Joshua Upham ($2,296), and 60 acres of timber divided among all three sons ($400) (Windsor District Probate, 6:171-75, 230, 232).

WILLIAM[6] UPHAM (#36 William,[5-4] Phineas,[3-2] John[1]), born at Weston, Massachusetts, 7 August 1747 (VR 59); died prob. at Camden, Maine, between 1810 and 1820.

He married at Newton, 12 November 1770 (VR 394), ANN SHEPARD, daughter of Alexander and Mary (Willard) Shepard, born at Newton, 19 April 1746 (VR 173; Shepard Families, 3:1-2). The estate of Alexander Shepard was insolvent and no heirs are listed in the probate file (Middlesex Co. PR, #20268).

William Upham settled in the vicinity of Clam Grove (now known as Glen Cove) in Maine (Hist. Camden and Rockport, 40). William Upham was enumerated there in the published 1790 census (p. 26) and in 1800 he appeared in Camden, Lincoln Co., on page 558 as a male over 45, living with one female over 45. "William Upham, Jr." was enumerated on the same page with 1 male 26-45 and 1 female 26-45. In 1810 the Camden census shows two William Uphams on page 126, one with a male and female over 45 and the other as "Jr." enumerated with 3 males uner 10, 1 male 26-45, 2 females 16-26 and 1 female 26-45. By 1820 only one William Upham was recorded in Camden and his family consisted of 3 males under 10, 2 males 10-16, 1 male 16-18, 1 male 16-26 and 1 male over 45 with 1 female under 10, 1 female 16-26, and 1 female over 45 (p. 266).

On 5 July 1759 William Upham, "Jr." and his wife, Anne, of Camden, Hancock County, Mass. [now Maine], sold land in Newton to Simon Jackson (Middlesex Co. LR, 177:556-58).

Child of William and Ann (Shephard) UPHAM:

LEONARD[7] UPHAM (#94 Leonard,[6] Ezekiel,[5-4] John,[3] Phineas,[2] John[1]), born at Brimfield, Massachusetts, 24 October 1803 or 1804; died at Raymond, Wisconsin, 4 or 14 March 1851.

He married 16 November 1830, SUSAN ELLIS, died in Monroe County, Wisconsin, 30 July 1866.

Information copied from the family Bible of Leonard Upham states "In May 1839 he moved from Sturbridge, Mass. to Raymond, Wisconsin. The following March,the Congregational Church was organized consisting of five members, at which time he was elected Deacon, in which capacity he served until his death. During the eleven years he served as Deacon he was absent from communion only one sabbath and then he was absent from home. His last public act was to meet his bretheren around the board of his Redeemer. He was then sick though he knew it not. Few men would as unwell as he was have left their bed. But that act was characteristic of the man. He loved the sanctuary and was always found at his post. In his death an affectionate husband, beloved, and a warm hearted Christian has passed away. In it the church has lost one of its strongest pillars, and the cause of missions one of its praying and contributing supporters. Our loss is his gain. He has entered into his rest and his works will follow him."

The family must have faced some hard times at Raymond. Publications of the Norwegian-American Historical Society which describe the Norwegian settlers who settled in the adjoining townships of Norway in Racine County and Muskego in Waukesha County, indicate the country was very swampy and consequently unhealthy. Diseases such as typhoid raged unchecked at times.

After Leonard's death, the family appears to have left Raymond as the children reach adulthood. Edwin Parsons Upham settled near Rio, Wisconsin, and other children settled in Monroe County, Wisconsin.

JOSEPH[7] UPHAM (#100 Caleb,[6] William,[5] Ezekiel,[4] John,[3] Phineas,[2] John[1]), born at Weathersfield, Vermont, 25 July 1812; died between 29 September 1891 (will) and 25 April 1895 (probate).

He married at Springfield, Vermont, by Daniel O. Morton, Minister, 1 September 1883, FANNIE A. STEVENS (Weathersfield Town Acts, 3:247), died after 27 May 1895 (waiver of husband's will).

See original volume for biographical material.

The will of Joseph Upham of Weathersfield was made 29 September 1891. He leaves all of his real estate to Gilbert S. Upham, consisting of farm land with buildings and all of the personal property consisting of neat stock and farming tools, cart wagons, sleds, mowing machines, rakes, plows, harness etc. George G. Upham was made executor of the will, which was witnessed by Harry Miller, Frank H. Clark, and Gilbert A. Davis. Because the will did not include provision for the widow, it was contested and the probate court order a division including dower for the widow (Windsor County Probate Court, North Springfield, Vermont, 46:465-467).

MARSHALL LAFAYETTE[7] UPHAM (#112 Abijah,[6] Phineas,[5] Abijah,[4] Thomas,[3] Phineas,[2] John[1]) born at Weston, Massachusetts, 28 July 1824; died 10 February 1909.

He married 6 November 1853, ANNA MARIA (WHITE) JONES, daughter of Saul and Julia Ann Maria (Warren) White, born at Taunton, Massachusetts, 31 May 1824; died at Weston, 18 December 1878.

Marshall lived in Weston all his life and was a road commissioner and farmer. He was a member of the Baptist Church for many years and sang in the choir until he was 80 years old. Selectman of Weston for some time, he resigned to accept appointment as one of three road commissioners. His fine big farm and orchards are now the Weston reservoir, one of a chain of storage basins that supplies Boston with its drinking water. He was a fine, natural musician, tenor soloist in the Weston Baptist church for over 60 years. Never having had the benefit of music lessons, yet he played both violin and piano. He was an enthusiastic member of an old-time singing school and a member of the Rumford Quartet for years. He was listed in the "Banker and Tradesman" as a man of highest integrity "good for anthing he agreed to pay." As an old man he was very softspoken, kindly, and always interested in the young folks of his family.

Children of Marshall Lafayette and Anna Maria (White) (Jones) UPHAM, born at Weston (see original volume for others):

See original volume for his obituary. They are buried in Oakwood Cemetery with children Martha, Hiram, Susan, Hannah, and Mary L. (Lot 173, Seciton P). History of the Hudson and Mohawk Valleys states "He learned the trade of carpenter with Henry Sage (brother of Russell Sage, the famous New York banker) beginning his apprenticeship immediately on completing his studies in the Eighth Ward public school. After finishing his years of service with Mr. Sage, he worked as a journeyman for a time then began contracting for the erection on buildings on his own account. He continued in business throughout the active years of his life, and became one of the leading contractors of the city. He built the Park Presbyterian Church, the Jewish Synagogue, and many of the noted public and private buildings of Troy. He was a Republican and active in Eighth Ward local politics. He was a member and trustee of Park Presbyterian Church. He was a member of the Masonic order, belonging to Mt. Zion Lodge, Free and Accepted Masons; Apollo Chapter, No. 48, Royal Arch Masons; Bloss Council, Royal and Select Masons; Apollo Commandery, Knights Templar, and was a thirty-second degree Mason of the Scottish Rite. He was also amember of Athenaeum Lodge, Independent Order of Odd Fellows, all of Troy. He was for many years connected with the National Guard of New York, and at the disbanding of the Twenty-fourth Regiment was captain of Company I, and the oldest Captain, in point of service, in the regiment."

WILLIAM HENRY[8] UPHAM (#196 Alvin,[7] Jonathan,[6-5] Samuel,[4] John,[3] Phineas,[2] John[1]) born at Westminster, Massachusetts, 3 May 1941; died in Wisconsin, 2 July 1924.

He married first, at Racine, Wisconsin, 19 Dec. 1867, MARY C. KELLEY.

He married second, in Wisconsin, GRACE MASON, whom he met at Beaufort, South Carolina.

In addition to the extensive biographical material included in the original volume of Upham Genealogy on William Henry Upham's distinguished military career, he was elected Governor of Wisconsin in 1894. During his one term, the State Historical Library was built and Wisconsin's first Civil Rights legislation was passed. William was in his seventies when he married his second wife, who was thirty. Their two sons were born when William was 75 and 80 years old.

At the battle of Bull Run in 1861, William was wounded by a bullet that entered his chest, pierced his lung and came out the back of his neck. Left for dead on the battlefield, his family was notified of his death and held a funeral. Instead, William awoke to find that a Rebel had stollen his shoes. "Noisily he demanded their return. The rebel soldier was so nonplussed he gave them back, mumbling in effect, 'Excuse me -- I thought you were dead.'" Upham was sent to Libby Prison in Richmond and spent seven months there before being paroled. In Washington, he was taken to President Lincoln to tell of his experiences. Lincoln appointed Upham to West Point and he graduated in 1866. Commissioned a second lieutenant, on of William's first assignments was to guard ex-Confederate President Jefferson Davis (The Capitol Times, Madison, Wisconsin, 14 April 1965).

JAMES BAGBY[8] UPHAM (#207 Chester,[7] Nathan,[6] Ezekiel,[5-4] John,[3] Phineas,[2] John[1]). He married at Burr Oak, Michigan, SUSANNAH BISHOP (the original volume says Susanna Cowles). She died 5 August 1889.

James came to Genesee County, New York, with his parents as a baby. At the age of 12 he went with his sister to Burr Oak, Michigan, and at the age of 19 he lost his right leg in the cylinder of a threshing machine. When the Michigan Southern Railroad was being constructed through the state, he worked on the road, then went to La Salle, Illinois, and worked for the Illinois Central Rail Road as foreman over a grading outfit. In 1854 he went to Chicasaw Co., Iowa, located on Section 1 of Richland Township and built the first log house in that township. The house had no floor during the first winter and the nearest neighbor was six miles distant.

After his wife's death in 1889, James sold his farm. He was stricken with paralysis on 28 July 1903 and moved to town in the month of May 1906 where he lived with his son Warren.

AUGUSTUS MARSHALL[8] UPHAM (#245 Marshall L.,[7] Abijah,[6] Phineas,[5] Abijah,[4] Thomas,[3] Phineas,[2] John[1]) born at Weston, Massachusetts, 8 October 1854 (Mass. Arch. Vol. 82; p. 179); died at Weston, 8 December 1939.

He married at Weston, 10 October 1878, EMMA JANE CRUIKSHANK, daughter of Donald and Mary Ann (Bryson) Cruikshank of Musquodoboit, Nova Scotia. She died at Weston, Massachusetts, 20 March 1905.

Augustus was for many years one of three Road Commissioners of the Town of Weston, Massachusetts, having followed his father who held that position for many years before him. About 1913 the three positions of Road Commissioners were eliminated and a Superintendent of Streets was appointed instead. From 1913 to 1922 Augustus served under several Superintendents as Assistant until he, himself, was appointed Superintendent. He held that position until 1935 when advancing age made it most difficult for him to continue. From then until his death at age eighty-five, he served as Assistant to his grandson, who was appointed Superintendent in 1936. Augustus's pride in his splendid service to the town was well justified. He was a leading citizen of Weston and was both highly respected and admired. He was a member of the Baptist Church for many years, always interested deeply in the good of the church and the community.

581. JACK YATES[10] UPHAM (#554 Glenn W.,[9] Andrew J.,[8] Joseph,[7-6-5-4] Thomas,[3] Phineas,[2] John[1]) born at Chicago, Illinois, 10 February 1908.

He married at Washington, District of Columbia, 24 January 1932, LORENA MAE LILLARD, daughter of Saintie Jackson and Cora Ellen (Partlow) Lillard, born at Washington, Virginia, 23 June 1909.

Jack lived in Chicago until he was about six years old, then moved to Richmond, Virginia, for the next eleven years. He went to grade school and three years of high schools. At the age of seventeen, in 1925, he worked in Richmond as a stock boy and soda fountain clerk for a department store. He then left town to work with the Geological Survey as a rodman for three years at Ballground, Georgia; Winchester, Tennessee; and Roanoke, Virginia. In 1928 he worked on the Blue Ridge Parkway from Front Royal to Waynesboro, Virginia. His next job was at Williamsburg, Virginia, on the Restoration of old Williamsburg, then moved to Cinicinnati, Ohio, in 1930 to work for the C & O R., and then to Baltimore, Maryland, to attend radio school.

After school, Jack went to work for the Federal Government in the Biological Survey and Migratory Bird Refuge over the country. He spent two years at New Jersey; Sandhills at Valentine, Nebraska; Charles Sheldon Refuge in Nevada; and Great Salt Lake out of Ogden, Utah. In 1933 he went to Clearfield, Kentucky, on the Cumberland Purchase for the Forest Service. In 1934 he reported to Stutgart, Arkansas, on the White River Refuge; then to Mount City, Missouri; to Seney, Michigan Refuge on the Upper Peninsula; to Rice Lake Refuge at Aitkin, Minnesota; Detroit Lakes, Minnesota, at the White Earth Indian Reservation, where the weather averaged around ten to twenty degrees below zero. Next he went south to Lake Arthur, Louisiana, on the Lac Ceine Bayou Refuge among the alligators and Priogue boats and Cajuns; and then to inside work at San Antonio, Texas, and later St. Louis, Missouri.

In June 1937 he started work with the Bureau of Public Roads, again on the Blue Ridge Parkway, this time in Sparta, North Carolina. Then to Waynesboro, Virginia; Pineola, North Carolina; and Boone, where they bought a nineteen acre farm in 1941. In 1942 he was transferred on temporary assignment (that lasted until his retirement in 1965) to Washington, D.C. In May 1946 they moved to Annandale, Virginia, while Jack worked with the Pentagon Road Network. He retired 19 December 1965 with thirty-six and one half years of service with the U.S. Government. He then worked for a private company on I-95 in Virginia and Maryland.
